Spelling - work for year 1

Revision of reception work

Statutory requirements

The boundary between revision of work covered in Reception and the introduction of new work may vary according to the programme used, but basic revision should include:

- all letters of the alphabet and the sounds which they most commonly represent
- consonant digraphs which have been taught and the sounds which they represent
- vowel digraphs which have been taught and the sounds which they represent
- the process of segmenting spoken words into sounds before choosing graphemes to represent the sounds
- words with adjacent consonants
- guidance and rules which have been taught

| Statutory  requirements |
| :--- |
| The sounds $/ \mathrm{f} /, \mathrm{II}$,  $\mathrm{ls} /, \mathrm{lz} /$ and $/ \mathrm{k} /$ spelt  $\mathrm{ff}, \mathrm{II}, \mathrm{ss}, \mathrm{zz}$ and ck |
| The $/ \mathrm{n} /$ sound spelt  n before k |
| Division of words  into syllables |

| Rules and guidance (non-statutory) | Example words  (non-statutory) |
| :--- | :--- |
| The /f/, II/, /s/, Iz/ and /k/ sounds are  usually spelt as ff, II, ss, zz and ck if  they come straight after a single vowel  letter in short words. Exceptions: if,  pal, us, bus, yes. | off, well, miss, buzz,  back |
|  | bank, think, honk,  sunk |
| Each syllable is like a 'beat' in the  spoken word. Words of more than one  syllable often have an unstressed  syllable in which the vowel sound is  unclear. | pocket, rabbit, carrot,  thunder, sunset |

| Statutory  requirements |
| :--- |
| -tch |
| The /v/ sound at the  end of words |
| Adding s and es to  words (plural of  nouns and the third  person singular of  verbs) |
| Adding the endings  -ing, -ed and -er to  verbs where no  change is needed  to the root word |
| Adding -er and -est  to adjectives where  no change is  needed to the root  word |

| Rules and guidance (non-statutory) | Example words  (non-statutory) |
| :--- | :--- |
| The /t/f/ sound is usually spelt as tch if it  comes straight after a single vowel  letter. Exceptions: rich, which, much,  such. | catch, fetch, kitchen,  notch, hutch |
| English words hardly ever end with the  letter v, so if a word ends with a /v/  sound, the letter e usually needs to be  added after the 'v'. | have, live, give |
| If the ending sounds like /s/ or /z/, it is  spelt as -s. If the ending sounds like  /Iz/ and forms an extra syllable or 'beat'  in the word, it is spelt as -es. | cats, dogs, spends,  rocks, thanks,  catches |
| -ing and -er always add an extra  syllable to the word and -ed sometimes  does.  The past tense of some verbs may  sound as if it ends in /Id/ (extra  syllable), /d/ or /t/ (no extra syllable),  but all these endings are spelt -ed.  If the verb ends in two consonant letters  (the same or different), the ending is  simply added on. | hunting, hunted,  hunter, buzzing,  buzzed, buzzer,  jumping, jumped, |
| As with verbs (see above), if the  adjective ends in two consonant letters  (the same or different), the ending is  simply added on. | grander, grandest,  fresher, freshest,  quicker, quickest |
